ee in-	The Bank of Bombay. (From the Bombay Gazette" of the 14th ult.) The old Bank of Bombay has now fairly en-nite reen did the	tered into liquidation, for the resolution to wind it up was confirmed by the shareholders vesterday (Modday). As to the new Banks, of pre- sted	course we wish it well, and hope it may turn out to be the paragon which some of its more outher astic and simpole-minded supporters in wed ders	expect it to be. There is a very prevalent feeling, however, test its direction is not likely, judging by present circumstances, to beso strong and influential and experienced a body as one
